

Toronto Worker Recruitment Trip - A Success

Friday, 21 March 2008

The Saskatoon Regional Economic Development Authority and six Saskatoon businesses are declaring a successful trip to the Workwest Career Caravan in Toronto.

SREDA led the trek east a week ago, in the heart of the Ontario Labour market to recruit potential employees. Bernie Ness , Labour Market Coordinator for SREDA says more than 3000 people visited the job fair and learned about the job opportunities in Saskatoon.

Ness says the employers who took part in the trip were impressed by the turnout and the interest shown by those who attended.

Toronto's unemployment rate stands at 6.2 per cent one of the highest in Canada and there are hundreds of people with the skill sets that are needed in Saskatoon.
